A Note from the Director

Upon closer look at this children's classic, I note a pervasive longing in the unique characters in "Aladdin". The characters each long for freedom-freedom from poverty, from duty, from servitude, from enslavement. And especially freedom from the weight of traditional law. As Christians, we have found true freedom. We have been set free through Christ from both sin and the laws of Moses.

"But now we have been released from the law, for we died to it and are no longer captive to its power. Now we can serve God, not in the old way of obeying the letter of the law, but in the new way of living in the spirit."

Romans 7:6

Who the son sets free; is free indeed! And as freed people, let us live in such a way that truly honors the one who paid for our freedom, Jesus Christ.

-Ms. Katie

Maranatha THEATER

Back in July of 2022, Ms. Katie shared a dream that has since become something very special, the creation of “Maranatha Theater,” a program within Maranatha that would reflect the same Christian and family-centered values that have shaped Maranatha Dance for decades.

What began as an idea has quickly grown into a thriving program, and now, just a few short years later, we are celebrating our third production, Aladdin Jr., a testament to her dedication, leadership, and heart for the arts.

From day one, Ms. Katie has led with passion, excellence, and a deep love for every student who walks through the door. She has created a space where kids feel seen, encouraged, and inspired to grow.

Her commitment goes far beyond the stage. Through long hours, creative vision, and a willingness to pour into each production, she has built something that is already making a lasting impact on our studio and the wider theater community in Lee County.

We are incredibly grateful for Ms. Katie and the role she plays in the life of Maranatha. Thank you for stepping out in faith, for sharing your dream with us, and for building a theater program that is already shaping so many young lives.
